BACKGROUND

Community Colleges are authorized under the Education article of the Annotated Code of Maryland and are governed by the Maryland Higher Education Commission. Prince George's Community College was established in 1958. The College operated out of the Suitland HS for the first 10 years.

PGCC is guided by a 9-member Board of Trustees and the College President. 8 Board members are appointed by the Governor with Senate advice and a student member is elected by the College student body.

The PGCC Foundation provides scholarships and philanthropic support to the College.

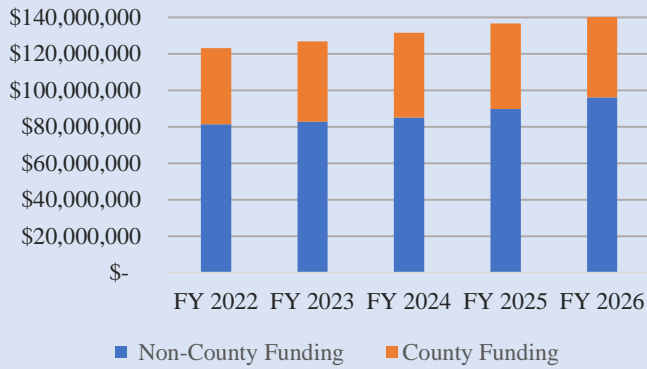

The College operates 1 main campus and 5 regional centers (including one in Andrews AFB) and eLearning opportunities.

County funding accounts for about 33% of the Community College's budget, with the State providing the second largest contribution.
